AR Party!

Students who met their Accelerated Reading goal for the quarter enjoyed a pizza-n-movie party on Friday. A nice reward for reading!

Sometimes you just want to be silly! Zy’Merria can always make us laugh—here she used her braids to give herself a “beard!”

Play-Doh Break

Eagan (left) and Cameran take a short break from work to enjoy some creative time with Play-Doh. Eagan is making some cool designs with his tool!

Remember the leprechaun trap the kindergarteners made? Alas, they didn’t catch any leprechauns. :( But they did make cute bubble maps using adjectives to describe the character from the book they read. Great work!

Do YOU know the signs for Asian countries like Japan and China? These 7th graders do! Students in Kaylyn Nix’s Social Studies class have been working on a unit about Asia. These pictures show the countries’ name signs.
